

Electronic Delivery of Form 1095-C

Opt-In Instructions:

1. Select 'Register as a new user' and provide the required information to create a new account. It is recommended that you use a personal email address so you can access your forms whenever needed personally.
2. You'll receive an email from no-reply@eyacaforms.com with a link to confirm your account.
3. Once you confirm your account, you'll be prompted to either opt-in or opt-out of electronic delivery for your 1095-C Form.
 - If you opt-in for electronic delivery ON OR BEFORE December 15th, then you'll receive an email when your 2026 form is available for download. You will not receive a printed, mailed copy. You may receive an additional email if material changes are made on your Form 1095-C. The actual Form 1095-C will not be emailed.
 - If you opt-in for electronic delivery AFTER December 15th, then you'll receive an email when your 2026 form is available for download. You will also receive a printed, mailed copy of your 2026 form but you will not receive paper copies of forms in future tax years. You may receive an additional email if material changes are made on your Form 1095-C. The actual Form 1095-C will not be emailed.
 - If you opt-out of electronic delivery, then your 1095-C will be mailed to your address on file with JHU each year. You will also be able to access an electronic version at <https://eyacaforms.com/JHU>.

After you create your account, all of your past and future 1095-C forms are available for download on the Ernst & Young ACA Forms webpage, regardless of your electronic delivery selection. You can opt-out at any time on the Ernst & Young ACA Forms webpage.
