OVERVIEW QUESTIONS: TUITION REIMBURSEMENT FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

INTRODUCTION

1. What is the Tuition Reimbursement Plan for Undergraduate Studies?

It's available for credit studies only from freshman through senior level courses. Reimbursement will be made for tuition (not fees) up to 11 credits at a maximum of $2,000 per calendar year.

*Please note: any remaining balance cannot be rolled over from year to year.

ELIGIBILITY

2. Who is eligible for this benefit?

Full-time benefits eligible faculty and staff who have worked for JHU for at least 120 days, and continue in a full-time benefits-eligible position can participate in the plan. The benefit is available only during periods in which the faculty or staff member is employed full-time, or during periods of authorized leave not exceeding one year in duration from which the faculty or staff member will return to full-time employment. Retirees, Visiting Faculty and Staff, Residents, Interns and Postdoctoral Fellows, and family members are not eligible for this plan.

COVERAGE

3. Are there upfront/out-of-pocket costs that employees must pay?

Yes. Employees are required to pay all upfront tuition and fee costs, out-of-pocket, before the application will be approved.

4. Are fees covered?

No. All university and college fees (including lab fees) are excluded from coverage and are the responsibility of the employee.

5. Is there a grade requirement?

Employees are required to pass the course with a letter grade of "C" or better. Pass/Fail or Satisfactory courses not accepted, letter grades only-no exceptions!

6. What does the plan not cover?

The plan does not cover:

- Costs exceeding $2000 per calendar year
- Non-credit courses, Certificate programs or Non-credit remedial courses
- Pass/fail/Satisfactory courses for which no academic credits are achieved/earned
- Audited courses
- Any related fees
- Courses offered by non-degree granting institutions
- JHU courses covered by the Tuition Remission Plan
- Non-JHU course costs incurred by family members
- Graduate studies/ Dissertations

- Full-time studies (more than 11 credits)

7. Are special and degree credit courses covered?

The program covers freshman through senior level undergraduate “special” and “degree” credit courses offered by an accredited, degree-granting institution. Employees will be expected to familiarize themselves with the admissions criteria for the college or university of their choice; some institutions require students to matriculate before they take any courses for credit.

8. How do I find out if the college/university I am interested in is a degree granting/accredited institution?

Accreditation and degree-granting status can be confirmed with the college or university’s Admissions Office. Employees may also contact the JHU Benefits Service Center at 410-516-2000 for this information.

APPLICATION PROCESS

9. What is the application process for participating in the Plan?

Employees are expected to register and pay tuition and related costs out-of-pocket. To qualify for reimbursement, employees must pass the course with a “C” grade or better (no pass/fail or satisfactory grades approved). We also need proof of tuition cost and proof of how the employee paid for the class.

10. May employees participate in both Tuition Reimbursement plans?

No. An employee is eligible to participate in only one of the two plans. Employees living and working outside the Baltimore/Washington metropolitan area are eligible to participate only in the Reimbursement Plan for Faculty and Staff in Outlying Areas. Employees working within the Baltimore/Washington metropolitan area are eligible to participate in the Tuition Reimbursement Plan for Undergraduate Studies.

11. What is the process for employees who want to participate in both the Tuition Remission and Reimbursement plans?

Across the Remission and Reimbursement plans, the university maximum education benefit made available to employees is $5,250 for credit course studies. Within the $5,250 amount, a maximum of $2,000 can be used on outside undergraduate courses covered through the Tuition Reimbursement Plan for Undergraduate Studies.

If your intentions are to use the $2,000 available through the Tuition Reimbursement Plan for Undergraduate Studies, and you plan also to participate in JHU courses during the same calendar year, you will need to limit family tuition remission spending on credit courses to $3,250. If you plan only to participate in the Tuition Reimbursement Plan for Undergraduate Studies, your reimbursement amount still may not exceed $2,000.

12. If I take and complete a course in the fall and submit for reimbursement (for $1,500) in January, and take and complete a course (for $1,500) in spring and submit for reimbursement in July of the same calendar year, will I be able to get reimbursement for both classes, the amount of which exceeds $2,000?

No. The maximum reimbursement in one calendar year (January 1 – December 31) is $2,000.00. Although the courses were taken in two separate calendar years, it is when the reimbursement is processed through payroll that would determine the annual limit.

13. Can any unused portion of the $2000 be carried forward to the next calendar year?

No, any unused benefit may not be applied to subsequent years.

14. Where can I find the forms?

SUPERVISORY INVOLVEMENT/PARTICIPATION
