

Legal Guidance Made Simple

Resources for you and your household members

JOHNS HOPKINS
UNIVERSITY & MEDICINE

According to a 2021 US Justice Needs survey, nearly two-thirds of adults experienced at least one legal issue in the past four years. If you or a household member could benefit from professional legal advice, put the Johns Hopkins Employee Assistance Program to work for you. Our free legal services can help you understand your rights, make informed decisions, navigate complex legal processes, and protect you from potential risks.
