

Fatherhood in 2023: Building Practical Skills and Connected Relationships

Webinar • February 14, 2023 • Noon ET/9:00am PT

What does it mean to be a dad in 2023? How do fathers break old cycles and outdated norms to become agents for positive change at home and at work?

Join Brian Anderson of Fathering Together and Dedan Bruner of OnFathering — colleagues and close friends — for a discussion on bringing your professional skills into your personal life to build a more connected and gender equitable home. Come for the practical skills and resources and stay for the opportunity to be welcomed to a community of dads committed to engaged fatherhood.

Register for Free

About Our Presenters

Brian Anderson

Co-Founder and Executive Director of Fathering Together

Brian Anderson is a husband, father, and gender equity advocate. He is a Grants Manager and the Co-Founder and Board President of Fathering Together. He's worked with hundreds of dads to translate their professional skills into home-life strategies. In September 2022, he published his first book, Fathering Together: Living a Connected Dad Life, which lays out servant leadership as a model for fatherhood.

Dedan Bruner

Attorney, founder of the OnFathering blog

Dedan Bruner, is an attorney working in the Small Business Administration's Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Civil Rights. After hours, the single co-parent can be found exploring the nation's capitol with his 11 year old daughter. Dedan is the creator of the website and blog OnFathering, a former SXSW Panelist, and the creator and co-host of the podcast Dad Genes: Exploring the DNA of Healthy Fathering.