

Young Professionals Networking Group

Are you early in your career, or is Hopkins your first professional job? Are you looking to establish or expand your network of peers? Establishing yourself as a young professional brings unique challenges, whether financial, social, emotional, or physical.

Who?

For those wanting a forum to connect with other Hopkins employees navigating their early career, join the Office of Benefits and Worklife for the Young Professionals Networking Group.

When?

The group meets monthly via Teams from noon to 1 p.m. on the fourth Wednesday of each month.

Registration required.
Register for the series.

Questions? Want to join the Team to chat and connect with others? Reach out to worklife@jhu.edu

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY