

Ukraine Resource List

February 25, 2022

“Before dawn broke in Ukraine on Thursday, Russian forces began to invade the nation...igniting battles around the country that left hundreds dead...thousands of Russians protested the decision to go to war.” - Via The New York Times

Government Resources

U.S. Embassy in Ukraine

The U.S. Embassy posted the following travel advisory:

“U.S. citizens in Ukraine should depart immediately if it is safe to do so using any commercial or other privately available ground transportation options. U.S. citizens remaining in Ukraine should carefully monitor government notices and local and international media outlets for information about changing security conditions and alerts to shelter in place. Those remaining in Ukraine should exercise increased caution due to the potential for active combat, crime, and civil unrest. Read the entire Travel Advisory.

On February 24, Russia’s forces attacked major Ukrainian cities, and the Ukrainian government closed its airspace to commercial flights due to Russia’s military actions.

On February 24, the Ukrainian government declared a state of emergency. Each province (oblast) will decide on the measures to be implemented according to local conditions. Measures could include curfews, restrictions on the freedom of movement, ID verification, and increased security inspections, among other measures. Follow any state of emergency measures imposed in your oblast.

The security situation throughout Ukraine is highly volatile, and conditions may deteriorate without warning. U.S. citizens should remain vigilant and take appropriate steps to increase their security awareness. Know the location of your closest shelter or protected space. In the event of mortar and/or rocket fire, follow the instructions from local authorities and seek shelter immediately. If you feel your current location is no longer safe, you should carefully assess the potential risks involved in moving to a different location.

On February 12, the Department of State ordered the departure of U.S. direct hire employees from Embassy Kyiv. The Department previously authorized the voluntary departure of U.S. direct hire employees and ordered the departure of eligible family members on January 23.”

U.S. citizens in Ukraine can call the Department of State at +1 606 260 4379 (outside the U.S.) or +1 833 741 2777 (from the U.S.) for assistance. You may also email KyivACS@state.gov for assistance. You may find additional information online at <https://ua.usembassy.gov/>.
